

Big Buildings

- 1 Who is the author of this book? In just a few words, describe what an author does.
- 2 Look back at pages 4–5. What two kinds of building are shown on this page? On what other pages can you see these kinds of building?
- 3 Look at page 10. What does the label say?
- 4 Look at pages 18–19. What is the main subject on these pages?
- 5 Find the glossary. What is an opera house?

1 Libby Romero is the author. An author writes the words in a book (or other text).

2 The pages show a castle and a skyscraper. Skyscrapers can be seen again on pages 6–7. Castles can be seen again on pages 8–9.

3 The label says 'pyramid [PEER-uh-mid]':

4 clock towers

5 The glossary defines 'opera house' as 'a theatre where people perform music and shows'. Students may choose to use a quotation or to explain this in their own words.
