Romantic wall hanging

The beautiful products from Vaessen Creative are loved by hobbyists all over the world. In this DIY, we show you how to create a wall hanging using cutting dies from Vaessen Creative, fully styled in a romantic theme. Enjoy crafting!

1
Cut the two largest swallowtail banner dies from patterned paper and the two next largest from foam.

2
Attach the foam banners to the back of the patterned paper banners for extra sturdiness.

3
Cut the two nesting dies and also attach a piece of foam to them.

4
Use a glue roller on the front circle and wrap a piece of hemp cord around it.

5
Glue the two circles together.

6
Cut two strips measuring 2.5 x 5 cm from the patterned paper and attach them to the back banner.

7

Roll a tube from patterned paper measuring 11.5 x 3 cm.

8

Stamp a text on the small banner and attach cut-out elements from the patterned paper.

9

Make a bow from satin ribbon and punch a heart from the patterned paper. Attach the heart to the bow.

10

Add rhinestones for extra decoration and apply Ranger Glossy Accents to the heart, butterfly, and flower.

11

Attach hemp cord to the back of the strips to hang the banner
